

Homework Assignment for Monday, April 30

First, review the COCC award (degree/certificate) definition proposal that you read for April 16; then do the following:

1. Locate an award that you have in your discipline, and review the definition. Do you agree with the definition?
 - a. Imagine a new program director wants to use the minimum requirements in the definition for their program. Do you feel the proposed minimum is sufficient? If no, what would you change?
2. Locate an award with which you have little familiarity. If you were asked to create a program for this award, does the definition provide you with sufficient structure?
