

Academic Calendar Deadlines

Administrative Withdrawal

To ensure that all available class seats are filled with students, COCC enforces an attendance policy the first week of term. Students must attend 100 percent of the first week's class and lab meetings. (For classes that do not span the entire term the student must attend the first class session.)

Faculty should use Faculty Bobcat Web Account to view class rosters the first week of term. If a student misses ANY class session during the first week's classes without notifying you, email the student(s) name, ID number, and CRN to records@cocc.edu. Detailed instructions will be emailed to all instructors by Enrollment Services on the first day of each term.
