College NOW

2017-2018 REGISTRATION FORM

Dear Student,

This high school class is part of a dual credit agreement between your high school and COCC. That means you can earn college credit for this class at the same time you earn credit toward high school graduation.

You need to know all the facts to decide if this is a good deal for you:

- College Now credits are $15 each, vs $95 each on campus
- Earning college credit now puts you ahead of the pack after you graduate
- Taking this class will give you a feel for college-level work

But college credit has some possible challenges to consider, too.

- COCC credit may not be accepted at the college you attend after graduation. Most colleges and universities have a "Credit Transfer" tool on their website – use it! You can see if this COCC class helps you in the long run.
- Any credits you earn will be counted toward the 90 credit maximum Oregon Promise covers. So if you hope to use OP next year, make sure these classes make sense for your major or certificate.
- Federal Financial Aid will only cover a limited number of credits, based on the program you're following. Lots of elective credits that don't apply to your degree will still count toward that limited number of credits.
- If you get a poor grade (D, F or W) it could impact your ability to get financial aid for YEARS to come.
- Your teacher may require additional and more challenging work to earn the college credit – are you ready for it?

This information isn't to discourage you, but you need to make this decision based on your plans, dreams and reality. If you have questions, the College Now Liaison can help. You just have to ask! See the contact information at the bottom of this page.

If you decide to register, here's what you need to do:

1. Take the parent letter home, and have your parents read and sign the Parent Acknowledgement
2. Fill out this form (see reverse side)
3. Get a check, money order, cash or credit card slip (see the Parent Letter) for $_____

Check/money order made payable to: _____

Bring all three of these things to class on _____ (date)

If you have questions or concerns about the deadline for registration, contact Debbie Hagan, Director of College Now, at dhagan@cocc.edu or 541.504.2912, before the registration deadline.
