ELECTIVO SESSIONS DESCRIPTIONS

All courses taught in Spanish. All levels are welcome at each session (challenge yourself!)

- Beginning: This course taught in Beginning level Spanish.
- Intermediate: This course taught in Intermediate level Spanish. Intermediate and above students are encouraged to attend.
- Advanced: This course taught in Advanced Spanish. Advanced students are encouraged to attend.

SPANISH CONVERSATION GROUPS

Students and instructors will practice their level of conversational Spanish in a small group setting. This informal roundtable discussion will help students practice and polish their everyday conversation and grammar. Offered at the Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced levels throughout each day.

LANGUAGE PRACTICE & COMPREHENSION

Circling with Cards

Skip Crosby • Intermediate

This session will use an acquisition strategy called "Circling with Cards" to help the class learn about each other, acquire the language and engage 100% in Spanish. Have fun in this highly engaging activity designed to keep the conversation compelling and comprehensible!

Movie Talk

Skip Crosby • Intermediate

Movie Talk, developed by Ashley Hastings, is a powerful teaching technique used by language teachers to provide large quantities of Comprehensible Input, leading to language acquisition. Dr. Hastings says, "The essential feature of Movie Talk is comprehensible input through narration of interesting movies." The Movie Talk sessions will take high interest video clips (student suggestions are welcome) and create 100% comprehensible conversation about the clips in the target language.

Story-Telling

Michele Whaley • Beginning

Contribute to the creation of a group story as a means of immersing yourself in Spanish. By the end of class, you will be able to retell the newly created story.

Story-Asking

Michele Whaley • Beginning

All stories start with a problem. In this class, you will move the story toward its conclusion by proposing characters, adding details, and suggesting plot points. Will the ending be tragic or triumphant? It is up to you.

COSSI PROGRAM GUIDE

Read!

Michele Whaley • Beginning

In this interactive reading session, students will read a book together and use it as a means of getting to know each other while practicing reading and language skills.

Lights, Camera, Action!

Michele Whaley • Beginning

Learn and practice your Spanish speaking skills by watching and discussing short videos.

Lexical Diversity in the Spanish Language A Glimpse of History and Etymology

Marcos Rivera • Intermediate • Advanced

Students will discover the diversity that exists in the Spanish language, including expressions and vocabulary. Students will be able to identify the origin of various idiomatic expressions and words that characterize different communities of speakers of Spanish.

SPANISH CULTURE & TRAVEL

Money and Morality on the Camino de Santiago

John Seasholtz • Beginning • Advanced

The twelfth-century Church expected pilgrims to take a vow of poverty that often conflicted with the realities of a robust money economy along the Camino de Santiago. John Seasholtz will present evidence from contemporary literature, church sculptures and coins to explore the evolution in Church attitudes about money, efforts to control lucrative pilgrim markets, and political and spiritual propaganda.

¡Vamos a bailar!

Stephina Brewer • Intermediate

One of the best parts of living in Spanish speaking countries is the opportunity to dance. Loosen your hips while learning the four most popular Latin dances. The instructor will give you simple and easy to understand instructions so you can learn a different dance each day. Monday is Merengue, Tuesday learn Cumbia, Cha-cha-cha on Wednesday and finish the week with Salsa on Thursday. Learn steps for each as performed in parties and clubs all over the world. No partner necessary. Remember your brain and body are connected. Get down to learning by dancing.

Desplazados en Colombia

Susan Corning • Beginning

Violence in Colombia's countryside from 1964 to the present-day has caused over 150,000 people to flee their rural farms and head to the cities, jobless and homeless. Despite the 2016 peace agreement between the FARC and the Colombian government, the violence continues. Learn about your presenter's experience working in Colombia (2005-2007) on an agricultural project aimed at eradicating coca production. She saw first-hand how dangerous rural areas were and observed destabilizing factors that increased rural instability.

Cultural Expressions in the Spanish Caribbean: A Hint of Music, Art, Flavor & History

Marcos Rivera • Intermediate • Advanced

Students will gain a general idea of the cultural seeds that have flourished in the Spanish speaking Caribbean. They will appreciate and understand the Taina heritage as well as the African and Spanish influence and how all have fused a culture of rhythms, colors and flavors that are enjoyed today.

COSSI PROGRAM GUIDE

Los Incas Increíbles

Duane Schmidt • Beginning

These amazing people governed over 10 million people in an empire the size of the Roman Empire, created a network of 20,000 miles of roads, spanned the Andes with rope bridges, cultivated the potato, and much more – all without using a written language, the wheel, or beasts of burden larger than a llama. Millions of their descendants live in South America today. Come explore the world of the Inca with us.

La Poderosa Geografía Del Perú

Duane Schmidt • Beginning

Peru is one of the most geographically diverse countries on the planet - home to parts of the driest desert, longest river, and the largest jungle in the world. See and discuss some of the most beautiful scenery on Earth and learn how Peru's geography and natural resources have influenced its cultures.

Desde El Fondo De Mi Corazón (From the Bottom of My Heart)

Laurie Clarcq • Intermediate

Songs are beautiful stories that speak to the heart, mind and soul. We will start with two simple Spanish songs and a music video, and create some fascinating discussion around the stories they tell.

Una Semana En Oaxaca

Laurie Clarcq • Advanced

Explore the preparations and celebrations of the Day of the Dead in Oaxaca, Mexico. Instructor will share photos and regalia from Day of the Dead 2018.

Selena: Para Siempre

Laurie Clarcq • Intermediate • Advanced

A glimpse into the life and music of Selena Quintanilla Perez. In her short life, Selena touched the lives of millions. Her music continues to do so! Come and learn about this lovely young woman and her legacy.

The Culture of Bullfighting

Eileen Poxon • Intermediate • Advanced

Discover the vocabulary, music and customs of bullfighting, a tradition that has transformed over time. Bullfighting started as a venue for knights to demonstrate their skills, it later became an act for royalty to rally the populace and finally an art form for matadors of humble origin to show their skills.

The Art of Goya

Eileen Poxon • Intermediate • Advanced

Concentrate on your Spanish Art vocabulary while learning about the works of Francisco de Goya y Lucientes. Goya is a bridge between the old masters and the modern 19th & 20th century artists that followed.

Viviendas de America Latina

John Gorman • Intermediate

Are you curious about how people live in Latin America? This session will cover types of housing and materials as well as weather, geography and the pros/cons of city and country living.

COSSI PROGRAM GUIDE

Un recorrido de Baja California

John Gorman • Beginning

Take a virtual road tour of Baja and learn about beaches, climate, west vs. east coast, plants and animals (whales, porpoises and other sea creatures), missions and the geography of the area.

El Antiguo México

John Gorman • Advanced

Numerous Spanish explorers and conquistadors explored the southwest of North America (including present-day west and central United States) in the 16th and 17th centuries. Learn which areas were a part of Mexico, how they became part of the United States and the history and struggle of a changing governance.

Los Castells

Elicia Cárdenas • Beginning • Intermediate

A castell is a human tower built traditionally at festivals in Spanish speaking regions. Learn about the origin and tradition of human towers of the port city of Tarragona, España, located in northeastern Spain's Catalonia region.

El Cucuy

Elicia Cárdenas • Beginning • Intermediate

Learn about El Cucuy. This boogeyman myth is a story Hispanic parents tell their disobedient children to scare them into behaving.

Parques Nacionales de América del Sur

Silvi Galmozzi • Beginning • Intermediate

South America has lots of things to offer, one of the most amazing gifts we can witness (and visit) is from mother nature herself. Travel with images of parks, reservations, mountains, valleys, and much more, and start planning your next visit to South America. Join us to learn about 10 National Park, from Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, and Perú.

Artistas Latinos

Silvi Galmozzi • Beginning • Intermediate

The world we live in changes and evolves constantly and it would not be the same without the invaluable contribution of Latino artists. From actors to dancers, musicians and painters, discover the gifts these amazingly talented people have brought to our times for our enjoyment.

EVENING EVENTS

WEDNESDAY JUNE 23

Wines of Spain

Sarah Wolcott

6:00-7:30 p.m.

The wines of Spain are as diverse as the country itself. Join wine professional Sarah Wolcott to learn about the wines and history from Spain's most distinctive regions. She will discuss the characteristics of both a Spanish red and white wine. Participants must be 21 years of age or older. Wine list provided prior to the start of COSSI week for those who choose to taste along.

Key Note Presentation

100 Miles to Build a Bridge with Mario Mendoza

6:00-7:30 pm •

Bend's professional ultra-runner Mario Mendoza tells his story of setting out to run 100 miles in a single day with the goal of inspiring, uniting and bridging the divide between the people and countries he loves - America and Mexico. Attendees will watch the documentary, 100 Miles: To Build a Bridge and then Mario will discuss his experience.

"Both of my parents are from Jiquilpan, Michoacan, Mexico. I was born in California and grew up on an Avocado Ranch in Cambria.

Life hasn't always been easy being Mexican/American. I always felt like I had to choose sides until I realized we need people being a bridge between two cultures.

My goal is to use trail running for much more than individual reasons. I hope to bring peace, unity, and love to runners of different backgrounds and cultures.

I race for the USA team and i'm (I'm) proud of it. I'm also equally proud that my family is from Mexico. Thanks for joining me on this journey." – Mario Mendoza
