

*All courses are taught in Spanish. The level is noted for each session found in the Weekly schedule for each Level.

Beginning = This course taught in Beginning level Spanish. All levels are welcome.

Intermediate = This course taught in Intermediate level Spanish. Intermediate and above level students are encouraged to attend.

Advanced = This course taught in Advanced Spanish. Advanced level students are encouraged to attend.

Category	Title	Presenter	*Levels Taught	Description
Art/Dance/Literature
	The Art of Goya	Eileen Poxon	Beginning Intermediate Advanced	Concentrate on your Spanish Art vocabulary while learning about the works of Francisco de Goya y Lucientes. Goya is a bridge between the old masters and the modern 19th & 20th century artists that followed.
	Read!	Michele Whaley	Beginning	Beginners will read a short novel over four days. Come one day, come all. We will catch you up on the plot line if you miss a day or two. Book provided.
	Quizás	Laurie Clarcq	Intermediate	Songs are beautiful stories that connect with our own lives. We will start with two simple Spanish songs and a music video, and create some fascinating discussion around the stories they
	Hoy es Domingo	Laurie Clarcq	Intermediate	Song and music videos share language, culture and joy. Come explore this song that will provide useful vocabulary as we also explore the two artists and the cultural components of the video. (Singing not required, but you will want to)
Cooking/Wine Demonstration:
	The Culture & Preparation of Tapas (2 separate electivos)	Abram Ditman	Beginning	Start in the classroom session, learning about the Culture of Tapas, then follow in the afternoon with hands on cooking demonstration. Small bites from different regions of Spain will be prepared and tasted. Participants are encouraged to sign up for both the classroom and cooking session. Cost is $10 to cover cost of food. Limited to 20 participants.
	Wines of Spain	Sarah Wolcott	Beginning	The wines of Spain are as diverse as the country itself. Come and experience wines from Spain's most distinctive regions. Participants must be 21+ and show ID. Cost is $15 to cover cost of wine.

*All courses are taught in Spanish. The level is noted for each session found in the Weekly schedule for each Level.

Beginning = This course taught in Beginning level Spanish. All levels are welcome.

Intermediate = This course taught in Intermediate level Spanish. Intermediate and above level students are encouraged to attend.

Advanced = This course taught in Advanced Spanish. Advanced level students are encouraged to attend.

	Do: España	María Santos	Beginning Intermediate	The cuisine of Spain is as varied as its landscapes. The star products of Spanish cuisine are varied, but 6 ingredients are present in all regions. Take a tour through the Spanish gastronomic landscape.
Exercise/Activity	Zumba® Moves 101	Char Schulz	English	Come to this session to get some exercise and learn exhilarating, easy-to-follow Zumba® moves that you can take into Latin Fitness & Dance or other Zumba® classes.
	Latin Dance & Fitness	Ely Blackwood	Beginning	Get your groove on and some exercise in this high energy Latin Dance & Fitness.
	Argentinean Tango	Tyler Haas	Beginning	Learn the basic steps of this old-world dance popular in all Spanish cultures.
	Campus Tour	TBD	Beginning Intermediate	Put on your best hiking shoes and have a guided tour of the beautiful Bend COCC campus. See variety of wild life, native vegetation and beautifully manicured grounds.
Language Practice &amp; Comprehension
	Varieties of Spanish	María Santos	Intermediate Advanced	In both Peninsular Spanish and Latin American Spanish, there are notable differences. Learn about diversity within unity by studying varieties of Spanish in the world.
	La Llorona 1-4 Techniques of Embedded Reading	Michele Whaley	Beginning	This four-part session is for complete beginners. You will hear, act out, and read the legend of La Llorona. This session will demonstrate "Embedded Reading," a technique that speeds reading comprehension.
	Embedded Reading Techniques for Educators	Michele Whaley/ Laurie Clarcq	Beginning	Embedded Reading is a technique created by teachers Laurie Clarcq and Michele Whaley. Originally developed for second language students, this technique has proven useful for teachers of many different content areas.
	Knock- Knock?	Michele Whaley	Beginning	Learn language through jokes.
	Refranes y Dichos	Gina Chylak	Beginning Intermediate	Learn some common proverbs in Spanish and their connection to a country's folklore and then incorporate a short reading and/or writing activity to practice using them.

*All courses are taught in Spanish. The level is noted for each session found in the Weekly schedule for each Level.

Beginning = This course taught in Beginning level Spanish. All levels are welcome.

Intermediate = This course taught in Intermediate level Spanish. Intermediate and above level students are encouraged to attend.

Advanced = This course taught in Advanced Spanish. Advanced level students are encouraged to attend.

	Web Resources	Gina Chylak	Beginning Intermediate	Learn Spanish by exploring websites that include games, listening, grammar, vocabulary, tutorials, news, pop culture and music.
	Fenómenos sintácticos	Glennys Schwartz	Advanced	In this session you will know some syntactic phenomena of Spanish that are interesting and important to understand when you are learning this language.
Music/Dance &amp; Culture	Beyond the Latin Grammys	Abram Ditman	Intermediate	Learn the culture and idiomatic expressions of the people by listening to Spanish language music. Participants welcome to bring their own favorite Spanish language musicians to share.
	Camino de Santiago	John Rosenberg	Beginning Advanced	This focused presentation about the Christian pilgrimage that began in the middle ages and travels through northern provinces of Spain to the cathedral of Santiago de Compostela in Galicia.
	Bullfighting	Eileen Poxon	Beginning Intermediate Advanced	It started as a venue for knights to demonstrate their skills, then an act for royalty to rally the populace and later for matadors of humble origin to create a skillful art form with its own vocabulary, music and customs.
	El Fútbol 1 & 2 (two separate electivos)	Josh Evans & David Engel	Beginning Intermediate	This is a two-part session. Session one will be a lively presentation It will be a fascinating glimpse into the politics, history, culture and language of Spain, all through the perspective of "el Clásico", the rivalry between Real Madrid and FC Barcelona. Session 2 will take place outside where students can participate in a demonstration of how to play soccer.
	Growing up Bi-Culturally	Alma Aguiar	Advanced	Besides the 41 million native Spanish speakers in the U.S. there are nearly 12 million bilinguals, many who were born in the U.S. to Spanish speaking parents. Besides the language, the bicultural perspective give these individuals rich experiences and insights into the world. Come listen to the journey of one of these unique people.
	Cine en español	Pedro Nuñez	Intermediate Advanced	Movies develop connections between language and the real world, and as a cultural product, they are a valuable source of information about the communities of speakers of the Hispanic world.

*All courses are taught in Spanish. The level is noted for each session found in the Weekly schedule for each Level.

Beginning = This course taught in Beginning level Spanish. All levels are welcome.

Intermediate = This course taught in Intermediate level Spanish. Intermediate and above level students are encouraged to attend.

Advanced = This course taught in Advanced Spanish. Advanced level students are encouraged to attend.

	Canciones	Pedro Nuñez	Beginning Intermediate	Music has the power to awaken emotions, enliven the imagination and exercise memory. Through music, we are going to approach the language and the Spanish culture.
	Lights, Camera, Action!	Michele Whaley	Beginning	Discuss the action of short videos and learn the road to acquisition.
	Evolución del español	Glennys Schwartz	Advanced	In this session, you will know the most important historical events that have impacted the development of the Spanish language. You will learn about the contribution of the various cultures of the Iberian Peninsula, the New World (The Americas), as well as the current contributions to modern Spanish.
Professional Development	Medical Spanish: Basic Anatomy and Related Verbs	Jacqueline Hinds	Beginning	Learn basic human anatomy and ways to speak about physical functionality. Go beyond simple lists of vocabulary with an introduction to the application of mind mapping for glossary and quick study guide creation.
	Medical Spanish 2: Anatomy and Medical Specialties	Jacqueline Hinds	Intermediate	Build on basic anatomy terminology and explore common medical specialties. Explore how the mind mapping method of glossary creation can comprehensively include vocabulary for a body system and its related symptoms, analyses, diagnoses, and treatments.
Travel	Andalucía o Al Andalus	Andrea Hopkins	Beginning Intermediate Advanced	This southern region of Spain has a rich history and deep cultural blending. Even the basic words "usted" and "hasta" are just a few examples of Arabic influence, which characterizes this place.
	El espíritu de los Quechua: Amar, trabajar y aprender.	Jessica Bollinger	Intermediate Advanced	This session will present the tenets of life for this interesting and important group of people and their rules of 3 (love, work and learn; don't lie, don't steal, don't be lazy; anaconda, puma y condor; and the 3 realms of the world). There will be photos and Chakana necklaces to boot!

*All courses are taught in Spanish. The level is noted for each session found in the Weekly schedule for each Level.

Beginning = This course taught in Beginning level Spanish. All levels are welcome.

Intermediate = This course taught in Intermediate level Spanish. Intermediate and above level students are encouraged to attend.

Advanced = This course taught in Advanced Spanish. Advanced level students are encouraged to attend.

	Chile: From Democracy to Dictatorship to Democracy	Abram Ditman	Beginning Advanced	Chile's turbulent history is unique and dramatic, at times tragic, but ultimately hopeful.
	Cuba: Las Distintas Caras (An Evolving Nation)	Andrea Hopkins	Intermediate Advanced	Cuba is now more accessible for Americans because of changes to the U.S. Embargo. This island is a complex, vibrant and friendly place with many different appearances.
	¡Pura Vida!	Andrea Hopkins	Beginning Intermediate	This presentation will focus on Costa Rica and how this expression represents this Central American country. Discover the uniqueness and the characteristics that are part of the culture and heritage of this nation.
	Exploring Madrid & Central Spain	Eileen Poxon	Beginning Intermediate	Have you always wanted to visit Spain but are not sure what to expect or where to start? This elective will cover highlights on travel to Spain, how to get around and where to stay. We will concentrate on Madrid and the nearby outlying medieval towns that are full of history, art, culture, food and wine.
	Las Fallas de Valencia	Jacque Hinds	Beginning Intermediate	Learn some history about this hundreds years old celebration as well as current traditions. Fallas is a very vibrant and colorful celebration starting 3-4 weeks before San José day, the patron saint of Spain. See the huge structures built and set on fire, traditional foods, sights and sounds, including daily percussive fireworks. Additionally, there will be a glimpse into the history of the romantic language, Valenciano, which many think predates most Spanish dialects.
Morning Events	Orientation & Welcome	Chuck Hutchings	Monday June 25 7:30 – 9:00 a.m.	Wille Hall – Coats Campus Center

*All courses are taught in Spanish. The level is noted for each session found in the Weekly schedule for each Level.

Beginning = This course taught in Beginning level Spanish. All levels are welcome.

Intermediate = This course taught in Intermediate level Spanish. Intermediate and above level students are encouraged to attend.

Advanced = This course taught in Advanced Spanish. Advanced level students are encouraged to attend.

Evening Events	Live Concert/Dance	¡Chiringa!	Monday June 25 7-9p.m.	¡Chiringa! is a Latin dance party band based in Bend, Oregon that plays "rockified" tropical dance covers mixed with original funk-rock infused Latin music. They invite people of all different ages and backgrounds to experience the joy of Latin music, get down in their own sexy way, and celebrate life together like one big family!
	Don Quixote at the Movies: Is a Moving Picture worth 350,000 Words?	John Rosenberg  Keynote Presentation	Tuesday, June 26 6-9 p.m.	Hitchcock Auditorium From the earliest days of filmmaking, Cervantes' immortal creation Don Quixote has found himself projected on the silver screen. In this three hour class we will look at the history of Don Quixote in films from Spain, the US, Russia, France, the former Czechoslovakia (among others) from the 1930's through 2018. In doing so we will see how interpretations of the novel have evolved and how the novel has been used to explore and exploit specific social and political conditions.
	Film Night También la lluvia	TBD	Wednesday, June 27 7:00-10:00 p.m.	Hitchcock Auditorium – Pioneer Hall Spanish director Sebastián, his executive producer Costa and all his crew are in Bolivia, in the Cochabamba area, to shoot a motion picture about Christopher Columbus, his first explorations and the way the Spaniards treated the Indians at the time. Costa has chosen this place because the budget of the film is tight and here he can hire supernumeraries, local actors and extras on the cheap. Things go more or less smoothly until a conflict erupts over the privatization of the water supply. The trouble is that one of the local actors, is a leading activist in the protest movement. Directed by Iciar Bollain
	Hosted Dinner	Dr. Shirley Metcalf	Thursday, June 28 6:00-8:30 p.m.	Coats Campus Center Dining Hall