

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Dental Radiology Lab Student Registration/Application

This completed form and supporting documentation is due by July 1, 2016.

Dental Lab Dates: August 1, 2 & 3 (8:00am-4:00pm)

Dental Lab Fee $595

The Dental Radiology lab through COCC's Continuing Education program is for those working in a dental setting who want to obtain Oregon Dental Radiology Proficiency. Our Dental Lab course is a three day, hands-on experience developing skills in dental radiology. The goal is that students will have a set of x-rays to submit to DANB for radiologic proficiency. Please complete this form and submit with payment for Dental lab with all required documentation.

Note: This Dental Lab course is not designed for those without dental experience.
