

CENTRAL OREGON COMMUNITY COLLEGE SPANISH HEALTH CARE INTERPRETER GRANT

Application for the September 2018 Course

The COCC Foundation supports Continuing Education courses offering job skills. The Foundation has dedicated funding to assist up to six Health Care Interpreter students living in COCC's college district with partial grants of $650 (split between two payments: $400 applied to the first payment due in August and $250 applied to the second payment due in January, 2019). Be aware that any awarded federal financial aid may be reduced by the amount of this grant.

COCC will accept applications from candidates who meet the following criteria:

- You must live in the COCC college district https://www.cocc.edu/about/maps/files/cocc\_district.pdf
- You have met all training criteria and been accepted into the training.
- You have included a $300 deposit with this completed grant application (credit/debit card payment can be made by phone)

All completed grant applications must be received by COCC's Continuing Education department by 5:00pm on August 9. Grant awards will be determined by August 15 and all applicants will be notified. Please see page two of this application for payment schedule.

The full course fee for the Spanish Health Care Interpreter Training is $1750. This can be made in two payments. The first payment is $1000 and the second payment is $750.

The COCC Foundation grants will assist up to six students with a $650 grant for this course, which will be split between the two payments ($400 applied to first payment; $250 applied to second payment).

To be considered for a grant, you are required to pay a $300 deposit with your completed grant application. This demonstrates your ability to pay your part of the course fee if selected to receive a grant. You will be required to pay an additional $300 by August 22 if selected for a grant.
