Introduction

Central Oregon Community College, the oldest two-year college in Oregon, provides comprehensive college services to the residents of its 10,000-square-mile district.

COCC offers two-year associate degrees, transfer/lower division programs, career and technical education degrees and certificates, developmental courses, continuing education and community learning classes, industry-specific training programs, and business management assistance.

The College's main campus is located on the western edge of Bend, a city known for its natural beauty and its proximity to diverse recreational opportunities. The location affords spectacular views of the mountains from nearly every point on the 201-acre campus. The Redmond Campus, located 20 miles north on 25 acres near the Redmond Municipal Airport, offers all of the courses necessary to earn an associate's degree. In addition, it is the home of the Manufacturing and Applied Technology Center.

Thanks to a recently-passed bond measure, COCC will soon be building campus facilities in Madras and Prineville, plus adding health careers and science buildings in Bend and a technology center in Redmond.

A branch of Oregon State University was opened on the Bend campus in fall 2001. OSU and the University of Oregon collaborate to offer more than 370 upper division, on-site courses in 20 different undergraduate degree options.

Board Mission, Vision and Goals

Mission

Central Oregon Community College will be a leader in regionally and globally responsive adult, lifelong, postsecondary education for Central Oregon.

Vision Statement

Because of COCC, Central Oregonians will...

- be a districtwide community that holds and promotes lifelong postsecondary education and ongoing professional growth and personal development for adults as values;
- be able to connect actively with other communities, the state, the nation and the world in order to attain both locally strong and globally responsible perspectives;
- view education as integral to a sense of well-being, security and responsibility; and
- look to COCC to lead the region in the achievement of these ends.

Ends Statements/Goals

Because of COCC, the community will...

- have an adult population with the proficiencies and learning skills necessary for lifelong employment at or above a family-wage level;
- have an adult population with academic achievements and learning skills necessary to successfully pursue education at and beyond the community college level;
- work collaboratively to achieve shared purposes;
- have wide-ranging opportunities to enhance learning, wellness, quality of life, and cultural appreciation;
- support diversity; and interact effectively with state, regional, national and global communities.

Dr. James E. Middleton

Dr. James E. Middleton is in his sixth year as president of COCC.

In that time, he has overseen the College during a period of unprecedented growth—an increase of 45 percent in two years in student credit enrollment; helped present to the community a bond measure approved in 2009 that will result in $54 million for construction of five buildings throughout the COCC District; and shepherded the successful $3 million fund-raising campaign for a new culinary arts facility. He has worked to forge closer relationships with educational partners in the region, resulting in significant increases in the number of college courses available to high school students, and a strengthened partnership with OSU-Cascades, the state's first branch campus.

Previously, Middleton served as president of the College of Marin in California (1993 to 2003) and was a visiting scholar at the Community College Leadership Development Initiatives at Claremont Graduate University in California. Prior to moving to Marin, he spent 11 years at Pennsylvania College of Technology in Williamsport, as a division director, dean and vice president.

Dr. Middleton holds five academic degrees including his doctorate from the University of Michigan.

COCC History

- 1949 COCC opens with four part-time faculty members conducting classes for 109 students during the evenings in the basement of Bend High School.
- 1954 On the fifth anniversary, the students recommend changing the name to Central Oregon College.
- 1955 College Foundation is formed.
- 1957 Don Pence is appointed the College's first president.
- 1962 Central Oregonians approve the 10,000-square-mile college district and later elect the first district board.
- 1962 The R.L. Coats family donates 140 acres on the west side of Awbrey Butte for the campus.
- 1964 Nearly 700 students and 35 full-time faculty members begin classes at the new campus.
- 1966 COCC is accredited and a new 16,000-square-foot library opens.
- 1967 After Dr. Pence resigns, Dr. Frederick Boyle is named president. The college becomes Central Oregon Community College.
- 1971 Ponderosa Hall, a vocational-technical center, and Mazama Gymnasium open.
- 1982 The Pinckney Center for the Arts, named for instructor and administrator, Orde Pinckney, is formally dedicated.
- 1984 The Small Business Development Center opens.

- 1990 The Central Oregon Consortium for Higher Education (COCHE) begins offering selected four-year degrees through Oregon colleges and universities on the COCC campus.
- 1990 After Dr. Boyle retires, Dr. Robert Barber is selected as the third president in the College's history
- 1994 The University Center opens, replacing COCHE.
- 1997 Redmond Campus opens.
- 1998 New 72,500-square-foot library opens. Original library converted to classrooms.
- 2001 The State Board of Higher Education selects Oregon State University to serve as the managing partner of the state's first branch campus.
Manufacturing and Technology Center opens at the Redmond Campus.
OSU-Cascades Campus opens.
- 2002 Cascades Hall opens, housing offices and classrooms of OSU-Cascades Campus.
- 2004 Dr. James Middleton becomes the fourth president in the College's history.
- 2009 The Campus Center, including performance venue Wille Hall, opens in April. COCC receives voter approval for a $41.58-million bond measure to build five new facilities, ensuring eligibility for an additional $11.47 million in state funding. Facilities include health careers and science buildings on the Bend campus, a technology education center on the Redmond Campus as well as facilities in Madras and Prineville.

Facilities

The 201-acre main campus in Bend includes 22 buildings, incorporating 434,000 square feet. The 25-acre Redmond Campus encompasses three buildings, incorporating 51,500 square feet, including the Manufacturing and Applied Technology Center. The 38,000-square-foot Cascades Hall on the Bend campus opened in fall 2002. A 30,000-square-foot Campus Center, including a student dining facility and performance hall, opened April 2009. Most College facilities are available for rent: 541.383.7780.

The COCC Arboretum includes a walking tour of its collection of 80 species of flowering trees and shrubs as well as evergreen, coniferous trees native to the Oregon High Desert.

Computer Labs are available to students and district residents.

- 40-station lab in the Barber Library
- 31-station lab in Pioneer Hall
- 24-station lab in Cascades Hall
- Computers are also available in COCC's Adult Learning Centers in Redmond, Madras, La Pine and Prineville

Student Housing

Juniper Hall, COCC's on-campus residence hall, houses 102 COCC and OSU-Cascades students. It is operated and managed through COCC's Office of Residence Life. Staff includes a housing manager, a full-time, live-in residence director who oversees four resident assistants (live-in student staff). The 2009-10 room and board package for double occupancy is $7,626.

During the summer, Juniper Hall is rented to groups and conferences.

Call 541.383.7534 for more information.

Barber Library

---

The 72,500-square-foot Robert L. Barber Library is named for a former COCC president (1990-2004). It features Internet access on all public-access workstations, a 40-station computer lab and 30-station classroom.

Info: 541.383.7560

The holdings:

- More than 75,800 book titles in the online catalog
- 280 periodical titles and 14 national newspapers
- First community college to become a member of Orbis Cascade Alliance, a consortium of 36 Oregon and Washington academic libraries, with a combined database of more than 25 million items
- Interlibrary loan available to borrow items not held at COCC or not available through the Summit catalog
- Some documents available through electronic document delivery
- Numerous high-quality, scholarly databases and electronic resources, many with full text available online and most available from home computers
- Video collection and selective depository for federal documents
- Six group study rooms
- Featuring local and juried art exhibits
- Scholar in Residence program

Redmond Campus

A full range of educational opportunities is available at the COCC Redmond Campus, across from the Redmond Airport:

- Credit classes leading to a transfer degree
- Classes leading to an associate of applied science degree in business administration
- Foundational credit classes for most degrees and certificates
- Academic advising, placement testing, career and job search services, proctored exams, tutoring and financial aid information
- Small business advising
- Customized business training
- GED, basic skills, adult high school diploma and English language learning
- Dual credit—earn high school and college credits
- Short-term job skill training
- Self-enrichment classes

COCC's Manufacturing and Applied Technology Center (MATC) is a multi-industry training

facility where students can learn technical skills at their own pace and on their own schedule with the help of the skilled and experienced staff. The center specializes in skill development for individuals seeking employment in manufacturing.

For information, call 541.504.2900 or drop by Building #3 of the MATC.

Programs of Study

COCC offers certificates of completion and five associate degrees: Associate of Applied Science, Associate of Arts, Associate of Science, Associate of Science – Direct Transfer to Oregon State University and Associate of General Studies.

Certificates of completion, which require one to four quarters to complete, prepare students for immediate employment or advancement in various fields. Certificate programs include

- Accounting
- Addictions Studies
- Apprenticeship
- Automotive Technology
- Composites Manufacturing Technology
- Computer and Information Systems
- Culinary
- Dental Assisting
- Dietary Manager
- Drafting
- Forestry
- Geographic Information Systems
- Health Information Technology
- Juvenile Corrections
- Manufacturing Technology
- Massage Therapy
- Medical Assistant
- Medical Transcription
- Nursing
- Office Assistant
- Pharmacy Technician
- Retail Management
- Wildland Fire

The Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree trains students in applied career technical skills that prepare the graduate for immediate employment in the field. AAS degree programs include

- Apprenticeship
- Automotive Management
- Aviation
- Business Administration (includes emphasis in five different areas)

Programs of Study, continued

- Computer Information Systems (includes emphasis in three different areas)
- Criminal Justice
- Culinary
- Early Childhood Education
- Emergency Medical Services
- Forestry
- Geographic Information Systems
- Health Information Technology
- Manufacturing Technology
- Massage Therapy
- Nursing
- Structural Fire Science
- Wildland Fire

Associate of Arts (AA) degree programs fit the needs of most students who intend to transfer. The AA degree meets AAOT (Associate of Arts, Oregon Transfer) lower-division general education requirements for all public Oregon universities and some private colleges. AA programs cover subject areas from anthropology to speech, and pre-majors such as pre-medicine, pre-dentistry and pre-veterinary.

The Associate of Science (AS) degree is individualized for transfer to a designated Oregon public university for a specified major, such as business, science, engineering or technology.

Associate of Science – Direct Transfer to Oregon State University – Cascades Campus (AS-DT) degree is designed for students who plan to transfer and receive a degree from Oregon State University – Cascades Campus.

The Associate of General Studies (AGS) degree provides an alternative to pursue a broad, general education and accomplish personal educational goals. It is not transferable as a whole, and does not meet certification requirements for any career and technical area.

High School Options

Central Oregon high school students can earn college credit by participating in any of these COCC programs:

Concurrent Enrollment

Take up to 11 credits through the concurrent enrollment program. Register for classes on the Bend or Redmond campus. To register for classes on the COCC campus, follow the "Getting Started" steps (visit <http://new.cocc.edu/Getting+Started>).

Dual Credit

Some Central Oregon high schools offer college-level general education as well as career and technical education classes in the high schools, taught by high school instructors exclusively for high school students. Tuition rates are $15/credit for transfer courses and $10/class for career and technical education courses. Contact your high school counselor for information on course options in your high school.

Expanded Options

High school juniors and seniors may have the opportunity to take credit classes at COCC with no charge to them for tuition, fees, supplies and books (transportation to and from COCC not included). Students must sign up no later than March 1 to take advantage of this option for the following school year. Check with high school counselor or ASPIRE coordinator for more information on eligibility requirements.

Middle School Students

Middle school students may take classes at COCC. However, students must meet with the Director of Admissions/Registrar and meet various admission requirements. Contact the COCC Admissions & Records Office for details.

Student Services

CAP Center (Career services, Academic advising and Personal counseling)

The CAP Center provides services to any enrolled COCC student to help them make the most of their time at COCC, and to prepare graduates for family-wage employment.

Info: 541.383.7200

Academic advising

New, degree-seeking students are assigned an academic adviser during their first term at COCC and meet regularly with their adviser to work on their educational plan, degree requirements, schedule planning, problem solving as well as graduation, transfer and career preparation.

Personal counseling

Counseling assists students who are faced with personal issues that impact their college performance. Services are provided by professional, licensed counselors in a confidential setting at no cost to enrolled students.

Career/Job Placement services

- free career-planning workshops
- credit course in career planning
- Web-based, self-directed career exploration tools
- electronic career placement and temporary jobs bulletin board

Tutoring and Testing Center

Tutoring services are free to COCC students for the COCC courses in which they are currently enrolled. Tutoring is offered on both an individual and a group basis. There are also tutor-led study groups for some key courses.

The Testing Center's services are available to students and community members needing academic, professional and standardized testing. For a current list of tests offered, visit tutortest.cocc.edu or call 541.383.7538.

Disability Services

The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities ensures equal access to COCC campuses and Community Learning Centers for students with qualifying, documented disabilities, as defined by federal legislation. To arrange for specific accommodations, call 541.383.7583 or visit the office in the Boyle Education Center.

Multicultural Center

The Center, located in Room 217 in the Campus Center Building, is open to the public, staffed daily and offers activities and information to foster cross-cultural understanding and communication. Info: 541.318.3787 or 541.383.7412

Native American Program

This program provides Native Americans with individualized help to achieve their educational goals. It is also involved in a variety of campus and community cultural events during the year. Info: 541.318.3787 or nativeamerican.cocc.edu

Associated Students of COCC (Student Government)

ASCOCC provides students with numerous opportunities for governance, advocacy and social programming. There are six paid positions each year. Info: 541.383.7595 or ascocc.cocc.edu.

The Broadside Student Newspaper

The Broadside, a student-generated newspaper, offers students opportunities in reporting, writing, editing, design, layout and photojournalism and leadership through paid positions.

Info: 541.383.7252 or broadsidemail@cocc.edu

Club Sports/Intramural and Recreation Programs

These programs offer opportunities for competition, skill development, leadership and recreation. Clubs are organized by students with guidance from coaches, faculty and staff. Intramural activities feature friendly competition or are solely recreational.

Info: 541.383.7794 or sports.cocc.edu

Transportation

A free campus shuttle service circles the campus three times per hour. Maps are available at the Information Office or can be downloaded from the Web at <http://campusservices.cocc.edu/shuttle>. Also, the city of Bend's local bus service, Bend Area Transit (BAT), includes two bus stops at COCC: the Barber Library and Boyle Education Center.

With a composite of services, COCC is able to efficiently offer expanded opportunities for noncredit instruction appropriate to businesses, professionals and individuals.

Business Development Center

COCC's Business Development Center (BDC) supports business vitality through one-on-one business counseling, a yearlong Small Business Management program and practical, hands-on workshops. The BDC continues to exceed goals in providing these business support services throughout the College District. Business Development Center services are available to anyone who owns or operates—or is considering starting—a small business. Business owners who seek services are found everywhere. They comprise a complete spectrum of business stages, from start-up to mature companies. For information, call 541.383.7290.

Business and Employee Development

Central Oregon Community College creates, coordinates and delivers quality employee development programs to public and private sector businesses. Its training is high quality, cost effective and results oriented. It works with businesses on computer skills, supervisory and leadership training, Spanish in the workplace and specific trainings designed to fit industry needs.

Community Learning

Explore the possibilities with hundreds of noncredit classes for adults. Lifelong learning is based on the belief that people are learners at every age and are entitled to pursue educational opportunities meaningful to them.

Whether you want to develop your skills in a new hobby such as learning about digital cameras, taking a sushi cooking class or get into shape with yoga or cycle cardio training, enhance your job skills or even develop a new career. This is a great time to enjoy any of the hundreds of noncredit classes currently offered through Community Learning.

Adult Basic Education/College Preparation

Through the Adult Basic Education/College Prep program, students can expect to study to improve skills that will lead them to college level. The program also offers instruction in GED preparation, high school completion and basic skills such as reading, writing, math and spelling in Bend, Redmond, Prineville, Madras, Warm Springs and La Pine. English Language Learning is offered in many sites. Through the ABE/CP program last year, 78 students obtained their GEDs or high school diplomas, and 534 students attended English-as-a-second-language classes. A total of 1,150 students were served. The ABE/CP district office is located at the Redmond Campus. For information, call 541.504.2950.

COCC Foundation

The COCC Foundation is a separate, nonprofit corporation organized in 1955 to assist the College, its students and faculty through the development of private resources.

The Foundation provides this assistance by managing a variety of funding vehicles:

- Named endowed scholarships established in memory or honor of a donor
- Planned giving through the Heritage Society
- Raising funds through private and public partnerships

The 2008-09 COCC Foundation Scholarship Program provided more than 540 students financial assistance totaling nearly $750,000. A full scholarship for last year was $2,500.
