Introduction

Central Oregon Community College, the oldest two-year college in Oregon, provides comprehensive college services to the residents of its 10,000-square-mile district.

COCC offers two-year associate degrees, transfer/lower division programs, career and technical education degrees and certificates, developmental courses, continuing education and community learning classes, industry-specific training programs, and business management assistance.

The College’s main campus is located on the western edge of Bend, a city known for its natural beauty and its proximity to diverse recreational opportunities. The location affords spectacular views of the mountains from nearly every point on the 201-acre campus.

The Redmond Campus, located 20 miles north on 25 acres near the Redmond Municipal Airport, offers all of the courses necessary to earn an associate degree. In addition, it is the home of the Manufacturing and Applied Technology Center. COCC also operates campuses in Madras and Prineville where students have access to a variety of credit and non-credit courses and student services.

A branch of Oregon State University was opened on the Bend campus in fall 2001. OSU-Cascades offers 16 accredited undergraduate majors with 25 minors and degree options plus two graduate degree options.
Board Members

A seven-member board of directors governs the College, with members of that board elected from geographic zones in its 10,000-square-mile District.

Board Mission, Vision, Goals

Mission
Central Oregon Community College promotes student success and community enrichment by providing quality, accessible, lifelong educational opportunities.

Vision Statement
To achieve student success and community enrichment, COCC fosters student completion of academic goals, prepares students for employment, assists regional employers and promotes equitable achievement for the diverse students and communities we serve.

Goals
Central Oregon Community College students will…

• have academic achievements and learning skills necessary to transfer and articulate successfully beyond the community college level (Core Theme 1: Transfer);
• have the workforce knowledge and skills necessary for their careers (Core Theme 2: Workforce);
• have academic achievements and basic learning skills necessary to successfully pursue education at the community college level (Core Theme 3: Basic Skills);
• have access to and participate in wide-ranging lifelong learning opportunities that enhance wellness, quality of life, and cultural appreciation (Core Theme 4: Lifelong Learning).

COCO as an institution will support the values of
• working collaboratively to achieve shared purposes;
• supporting diversity, and interacting effectively with state, regional, national and global communities.
Core Themes

The COCC Board of Directors adopted four core themes at the 2010 Board Retreat. These themes manifest the essential elements of COCC’s mission as articulated in the Board Goals. The core themes are:

Transfer and Articulation
Courses and programs paralleling the freshman and sophomore courses of colleges and universities for those who seek to transfer and then earn a baccalaureate degree.

Workforce Development

Career and Technical Education (CTE)
One- and two-year professional training programs for those who seek certificates or degrees that lead to employment in business, industry, the trades or government service as technicians or skilled workers.

Business, Professional and Employee Development
Noncredit business classes, resources, workshops and information to help individuals and businesses succeed.
Basic Skills
Several academic departments and the College’s Adult Basic Education program offer courses that prepare students for college-level classes that will count toward degree completion and are transferable to other institutions. These classes are frequently available online or in classrooms on all campuses or other sites throughout Central Oregon.

Lifelong Learning
Noncredit learning opportunities at times and places convenient to adult students, using traditional and nontraditional instructional techniques. Course topics range from computers to cooking and language instruction to gardening and other outdoor activities.

(Director, 1952-1957)

Frederick H. Boyle, 1967-1990

Robert L. Barber, 1990-2004

James E. Middleton, 2004-present
Dr. James E. Middleton is in his ninth year as president of COCC.

In that time, he has overseen the College during a period of unprecedented growth—an increase of 100 percent in four years in student credit enrollment; helped present to the community a bond measure approved in 2009 that is resulting in $54 million for construction of five buildings throughout the COCC District; and shepherded the successful $3 million fund-raising campaign for a new culinary arts facility. He has worked to forge closer relationships with educational partners in the region, resulting in significant increases in the number of college courses available to high school students, and a strengthened partnership with OSU-Cascades, the state’s first branch campus.

Previously, Middleton served as president of the College of Marin in California (1993 to 2003) and was a visiting scholar at the Community College Leadership Development Initiatives at Claremont Graduate University in California. Prior to moving to Marin, he spent 11 years at Pennsylvania College of Technology in Williamsport, as a division director, dean and vice president.

Dr. Middleton holds five academic degrees including his doctorate from the University of Michigan.
COCC History

1949  COCC opens with four part-time faculty members conducting classes for 109 students during the evenings in the basement of Bend High School.

1954  On the fifth anniversary, the students recommend changing the name to Central Oregon College.

1955  College Foundation is formed.

1957  Don Pence is appointed the College’s first president.

1962  Central Oregonians approve the 10,000-square-mile College District and later elect the first District board.

1962  The R.L. Coats family donates 140 acres on the west side of Awbrey Butte for the campus.

1964  Nearly 700 students and 35 full-time faculty members begin classes at the new campus.

1966  COCC is accredited and a new 16,000-square-foot library opens.

1967  After Dr. Pence resigns, Dr. Frederick Boyle is named president. The college becomes Central Oregon Community College.

1971  Ponderosa Hall, a vocational-technical center, and Mazama Gymnasium open.

1982  The Pinckney Center for the Arts, named for instructor and administrator, Orde Pinckney, is formally dedicated.

1984  The Small Business Development Center opens.

1990  The Central Oregon Consortium for Higher Education (COCHE) begins offering selected four-year degrees through Oregon colleges and universities on the COCC campus.
1990  After Dr. Boyle retires, Dr. Robert Barber is selected as the third president in the College’s history.

1994  The University Center opens, replacing COCHE.

1997  Redmond Campus opens.

1998  New 72,500-square-foot library opens. Original library converted to classrooms.

2001  The State Board of Higher Education selects Oregon State University to serve as the managing partner of the state’s first branch campus.

Manufacturing and Technology Center opens at the Redmond Campus.

OSU-Cascades Campus opens.

2002  Cascades Hall opens, housing offices and classrooms of OSU-Cascades Campus.

2004  Dr. James Middleton becomes the fourth president in the College’s history.

2009  The Campus Center, including performance venue Wille Hall, opens in April. COCC receives voter approval for a $41.58-million bond measure to build five new facilities, ensuring eligibility for an additional $11.47 million in state funding.

2011  Building construction is completed for campuses in Prineville and Madras as well as the Jungers Culinary Center.

2012  COCC opens new state-of-the-art Health Careers and Science Centers on the Bend Campus including labs for programs in nursing, dental assisting, medical assisting, massage therapy, pharmacy technician, veterinary technician, biology, chemistry, geology and physics.

Facilities

The 201-acre main campus in Bend includes 25 buildings, incorporating 587,830 square feet. The 25-acre Redmond Campus encompasses three buildings, incorporating 54,299 square feet, including the Manufacturing and Applied Technology Center. The 38,000-square-foot Cascades Hall on the Bend campus opened in fall 2002. A 30,000-square-foot Campus Center, including a student dining facility and symphony practice hall, opened in August of 2009. Most College facilities are available for rent: 541.383.7780.

New Building Construction

Voters in the COCC District approved a bond measure in November 2009 for $41.58 million for construction, and the state of Oregon made available another $11.47 million for building projects. Buildings in Madras and Prineville were completed in fall 2011 and allow residents in Jefferson and Crook counties to have easier access to services and classes.

The Health Careers and Science Centers were completed for Fall 2012. The Health Careers Center houses the College’s nursing, dental assisting, medical assisting, massage therapy, pharmacy technician and veterinary technician programs and provides modern lab spaces for these critical areas; the Science Center adds labs, classrooms, faculty offices and other student learning spaces. A technology center will be constructed on the COCC Redmond Campus and is targeted to open in fall 2014.

The Jungers Culinary Center opened for culinary classes in fall 2011. The state-of-the-art facility has three kitchens, a demonstration theater and a 60-seat dining lab. Funds for this project were provided through the COCC Foundation’s capital campaign, a state grant and money from the COCC Capital Project Fund.

cocc.edu/About/Construction/Construction-Projects

Computer Labs

Computer Labs are available to students and District residents.

• 39-station lab in the Barber Library
• 31-station lab in Pioneer Hall
• 29-station lab in Cascades Hall (lab available to OSU and dual-admit students only)
• 20-station drop-in lab at the Redmond Campus
• 28-station drop-in lab/classroom at the Madras campus
• 58 public computer stations at the Prineville campus

Student Housing

Juniper Hall, COCC’s on-campus residence hall, houses 102 COCC and OSU-Cascades students. It is operated and managed through COCC’s Office of Residence Life. The 2012-13 room and board package for double occupancy is $8,384.

During the summer, Juniper Hall is rented to groups and conferences.

Call 541.383.7588 for more information.
Barber Library

The 72,500-square-foot Robert L. Barber Library is named for a former COCC president (1990-2004). It features wireless Internet access, public-access workstations, computer lab and a computer classroom. Students may check out laptops, digital cameras and other technology. There are other student services available in the library such as career advising and placement along with testing/tutoring.

Info: 541.383.7560 or cocc.edu/Library

Barber Library features:

• Hundreds of thousands of full text research articles from nearly 200 scholarly electronic resources and databases—accessible via remote login 24/7 to all enrolled students.
• Access to more than 25 million items via the Orbis Cascades Alliance, a consortium of 37 Northwest academic libraries.
• Electronic document delivery available for items not held at COCC or Alliance.
• DVD collection and selective depository for federal documents.
• Group study rooms.
• In-house gallery featuring local and juried art exhibits.
Redmond Campus

A full range of educational opportunities are available at the COCC Redmond Campus, across from the Redmond Airport:

- Credit classes leading to a transfer degree
- Foundational credit classes for most degrees and certificates
- Academic advising, placement testing, career and job search services, proctored exams, tutoring and financial aid information
- Small business advising
- Customized business training
- GED, basic skills, adult high school diploma and English language learning
- Dual credit — earn high school and college credits
- Self-enrichment classes

COCC’s Manufacturing and Applied Technology Center (MATC) is a multi-industry training facility where students can learn technical skills at their own pace and on their own schedule with the help of the skilled and experienced staff. The center specializes in skill development for individuals seeking employment in manufacturing.

For information, call 541.504.2900 or drop by Building #3 of the Redmond Campus.
Madras Campus

The Madras Campus is a 10,000-square-foot facility that includes classrooms, a computer lab, a large community room and offices for faculty and administration. The campus is built on land donated to COCC by the Bean Foundation. Funding for the facility came primarily from the successful 2009 COCC bond measure, with additional money coming from Jefferson County and a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) grant. COCC offers a variety of credit and noncredit classes and comprehensive student services for area residents.

Prineville Campus

The COCC Crook County Open Campus in Prineville is a collaborative partnership between Crook County, COCC and OSU Open Campus-Crook County. This 12,000-square-foot facility includes seven flexible meeting rooms and classrooms and offers 72 computer stations with high-speed Internet access in the building and mobile computer lab. The campus was funded by a grant awarded to Crook County by the U.S. Department of Commerce Broadband Technology Opportunity Program, proceeds from the voter-approved 2009 COCC bond measure, and support from local contributions and other nonprofit organizations. The campus sits on land donated by Crook County. The partnership offers community college, university and OSU Extension Services courses and programs, workforce training, continuing education and community learning opportunities.
Adult Basic Skills

Through Adult Basic Skills, students can study to improve skills that will lead them to college credit programs, the GED exam and work. Basic reading, writing and math classes are offered in Bend, Redmond, Prineville, Madras, Warm Springs and La Pine. English Language Learning (ELL) classes are offered in Bend, Redmond, Prineville and Madras. Students can also earn an adult high school diploma at COCC through an online program. Through the ABS programs last year, 25 students earned their GEDs or adult high school diplomas, and 333 students attended ELL classes. A total of 1,138 students were served.

The ABS office is located at the Bend Campus. For information, call 541.504.2950.
Programs of Study

COCO offers certificates of completion and five associate degrees: Associate of Applied Science, Associate of Arts, Associate of Science, Associate of Science and Associate of General Studies.

Certificates of completion, which require one to four quarters to complete, prepare students for immediate employment or advancement in various fields. Certificate programs include

- Accounting
- Addictions Studies
- Apprenticeship
- Automotive Technology
- Computer and Information Systems
- Computer Aided Drafting (CAD)
- Criminal Justice
- Culinary Arts
- Dental Assisting
- Dietary Manager
- Drafting
- Entrepreneurship
- Forestry
- Geographic Information Systems
- Health Information Technology
- Juvenile Corrections
- Kitchen Prep
- Manufacturing Technology
- Marketing
- Massage Therapy
- Medical Assistant
- Nursing
- Office Assistant
- Oregon Green Technology
- Pharmacy Technician
- Retail Management
- Wildland Fire

The Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree
trains students in applied career technical skills that prepare the graduate for immediate employment in the field. AAS degree programs include

- Addictions Studies
- Apprenticeship
- Automotive Management
- Aviation
- Business Administration
- Computer Information Systems
- Criminal Justice
- Culinary
- Early Childhood Education
- Emergency Medical Services
- Forestry Resources Technology
Programs of Study, continued

- Geographic Information Systems
- Health Information Technology
- Manufacturing Technology
- Massage Therapy
- Nursing
- Structural Fire Science
- Veterinary Technician
- Wildland Fire

Associate of Arts (AA) degree programs fit the needs of most students who intend to transfer. The AA degree meets AAOT (Associate of Arts, Oregon Transfer) lower-division general education requirements for all public Oregon universities and some private colleges. AA programs cover subject areas from anthropology to speech, and pre-majors such as pre-medicine, pre-dentistry and pre-veterinary.

The Associate of Science (AS) degree is individualized for transfer to a designated four-year college or university for a specified major, such as business, science, engineering or technology.

The Associate of General Studies (AGS) degree provides an alternative to pursue a broad, general education and accomplish personal educational goals. It is not transferable as a whole, and does not meet certification requirements for any career and technical area.
High School Options

Central Oregon high school students can earn college credit by participating in any of these COCC programs:

Concurrent Enrollment
Take up to 11 credits through the concurrent enrollment program. To register for classes on the COCC campus, follow the “Getting Started” steps (cocc.edu/Future-Students).

Dual Credit
Some Central Oregon high schools offer college-level general education as well as career and technical education classes in the high schools, taught by high school instructors exclusively for high school students. Tuition rates are $15/credit for transfer courses and $10/class for career and technical education courses. Contact your high school counselor for information on course options in your high school.

Expanded Options
High school juniors and seniors have the opportunity to take credit classes at COCC with no charge to them for tuition, fees, supplies and books (transportation to and from COCC not included). Check with high school counselor or ASPIRE coordinator for more information on eligibility requirements.

Student Services

CAP Center (Career services, Academic advising, Personal counseling and Placement testing)

The CAP Center provides services to support COCC students to achieve their educational goals and to prepare graduates for family-wage employment.

Info: 541.383.7200

Career services

COCC offers students the following career services: assistance for exploratory students in choosing their academic goals; support for students who are looking for employment while they attend COCC; and services to support students who are approaching graduation to conduct a professional job search.

Academic advising

New, degree-seeking students are assigned an academic adviser during their first term at COCC and meet regularly with their adviser to work on their educational plan, degree requirements, schedule planning, problem solving as well as graduation, transfer and career preparation.

Personal counseling

Counseling assists students who are faced with personal issues that impact their college performance. Services are provided by professional, licensed counselors in a confidential setting at no cost to enrolled students.

Placement testing

COCC offers the ACCUPLACER placement test to students for course placement purposes. The ACCUPLACER system is a computer adaptive test that is College Board approved and designed to assess current skills in reading, English and math.
Student Services, continued

Career/Job Placement services
• free career-planning and job-search workshops
• credit course in career planning and effective job-search strategies
• electronic job-posting website and jobs bulletin board

COCC Foundation

The COCC Foundation is a separate, nonprofit corporation organized in 1955 to assist the College, its students and faculty through the development of private resources.

The Foundation provides this assistance by managing a variety of funding vehicles:
- Named endowed scholarships established in memory or honor of a donor
- Planned giving through the Heritage Society
- Raising funds through private and public partnerships

In 2011-2012, the Central Oregon Community College Foundation awarded more than $1 million in scholarships. A full scholarship in 2011-2012 was $2,900. Out of 800 first time Foundation Scholarship applicants, 200 students were awarded scholarships. One hundred and twenty students received renewal scholarships.
