4. Committee Reports-

- Get-Out-The-Vote Committee

Discussed some of the things ASCOCC has done to get-out-the-vote. Touched on some of the tabling events that had been done by ASCOCC. Brainstormed some ideas of possible future events to engage with students and educate voters with the League of Women Voters. Some ideas were to put up posters with QR codes, have options to make people feel more welcome when discussing this topic. Important to bring attention to why it matters to vote. Highlighted ways to discuss voting topics in a civilized manner with those who are opposed. Another idea was to educate people on how to vote. Several people know about voting but never actually know how. Think about different ways to involve people or bring the topic up that can get through to others. Get professors involved to also aid in getting out the vote.

- Student Health Care Committee

First aid kits are in every building and were restocked. We should find ways to make people more aware of the first aid kits around campus.

Unfinished Business

a.) Changes to professional development fund

Moving to change the fund to offer $200 per person and up to $1000 per term. Trying to divide the professional development funds budget more equally. Council decided to see how this change plays out throughout the term. If an increase is requested, it can be discussed at a later council meeting. Got input from non-council members regarding the changes. The motion to change the professional development fund to $200 per person and $1000 per term was passed unanimously by the council.

New Business

a.) Funding request for Art & Design Club; Jack O' Lantern Jamboree II

Will be hosted on Halloween in Wille Hall. Requesting funding to get more snacks or games to help promote events and create opportunities for students to have fun. Asking for funding now rather than having to do it last minute when another event comes up. Heard from Alyssa on future events that the Art & Design club is planning. Unanimous vote by the council to provide funding for the Art & Design Club.

Announcements:

- Certain individuals have been taking things that do not belong to them in the ASCOCC office. Brainstorming some ideas regarding building better security for ASCOCC office items. Maybe moving the fridge to a different area. Certain individuals that are not students have also been coming in and taking things from the food bank that they are not entitled to. Possibility of getting a lock on the ASCOCC fridge.
- Announcement regarding ASCOCC members involvement on committees
- ASCOCC was turned down for an instagram page.
- Plans for ASCOCC to be a part of the Job Fair.

Meeting adjourned: 1:32 pm
