

Group Work Assessment

You will need to fill in the back to receive a grade on your project. You should not feel obligated to share your assessments of your group members with your group members. I'd prefer you didn't because I'd like your honest feedback and will be using the totals to assign final project grades to individual members.

	Superficial Involvement (S=1)	Developing (D=2)	Accomplished (A=3)	Exemplary (E=4)
Responsibility to Group Meeting Time and Communications	Missed one or more planned meetings or was late to or left early from more than one meeting; didn't respond when contacted by other group members	Attended all meetings, but missed part of a meeting (late or left early) or came distracted and not ready to work; sporadic communication with other group members	Attended all meetings in their entirety, arriving ready to work; kept lines of communication open	Attended all meetings, arrived on time and ready to work, staying on task and helping to keep the group focused
Contribution to Problem Solving Process	Does little to no sharing of ideas during group work	Offers minimal contribution or information which does not pertain to the problem or is off topic	Offers some information or suggestions for exploring the problem which leads to productive discussion	Offers information or suggestions for exploring the problem that not only leads to productive discussion, but that also enhances the group members' perspective of the problem
Contribution to the Successful Completion of the Project	Most often relies on others to do the work	Contributes the minimal necessary to get the project completed	Contributes fully to the completion of the project	Contribution leads to the excellence of the final project
Contribution to Group Dynamics	Attitude or actions negatively impact the group	Attitude or actions do not negatively or positively impact the group	Attitude or actions positively impact the group	Attitude or actions positively impact the group and individuals within the group

Group Work Assessment Work Sheet Submitted by: _____
 (Fill your name in here...)

Group projects require a commitment by all members of the group. As an individual in a group, you have a responsibility to your group, but also a responsibility to find a different group if your group doesn't meet your needs.

List the names of the people you worked with on the rollercoaster project.

- Use the Group Work Scoring Guide (on back) to assess your own group work contributions.
- Use the same scoring guide to assess your group mates, filling in the cells with the numbers corresponding to the categories from the previous page 1=S, 2=D, 3=A, or 4=E for each criteria. (This information will only be shared with others if there is evidence of a pattern of problems, and will not be tied to any individual doing the assessment.)
- Answer the questions that follow.

Names of each group member:	Responsibility to Group Meeting Time	Contribution to Problem Solving Process	Contribution to the Successful Completion of the Project	Contribution to Group Dynamics	Total each row:

In general, how do you feel your group worked in completing the project?

List some specific actions YOU can do to enhance your group's performance on a future project:
