

Practice for Quiz B

Neatly label every standard angle with its sine, cosine, and tangent by filling in each box for the associated standard angle. Express using fractions and radicals, not decimals. See the 0 degree box as an example. You can use radians or degrees to express your angle measures. Note: there are more on the back of the page!

Your answers must be in the form of equations, as shown.

